

European Movement
Mouvement Européen

Top candidates for the Presidency of the European Commission

The EMI asks the European political parties to present top candidates who run for Presidency of the European Commission, being elected by the European Parliament on the basis of the vote of the citizens in the EP elections, in application of the provisions of the Lisbon Treaty.